Situation in Jammu & Kashmir

276. SHRI SURESH PACHOURI: Will the PRIME MINISTER be pleased to state:

(a) whether the situation in Jammu and Kashmir has been deteriorating even after the Prime Minister's initiative;

(b) whether it is a fact that there is an open confrontation between extremists and security forces;

(c) if so, whether Pakistani arms and ammunitions are freely used by the Pakistan trained extremists; and

(d) if so, what are Government's plans to meet the threat posed by the Pakistan's continued help to the Kashmir militants?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS AND THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF INFORMATION AND BROADCASTING (SHRI SUBODH KANT SAHAY): (a) to (d) The law and order situation continues to be difficult in Jammu and Kashmir because of the presence of large number of trained militants with sophisticated arms and ammunition and continued support from across the border. However, encouraging signals are discernible in the form of surrenders by quite a few militants during the last few months and a visible change in the mood of the people.

Militants have launched several attacks on the security forces. The attacks indicate high degree of planning, motivation and use of sophisticated weapons and arms received from across the border. Security forces continue to maintain pressure on the militants.

To meet the terrorist menance in the Valley, surveillance on the Line of Control has been tightened, intelligence set up has been beefed-up and patrolling has been intensified in sensitive areas.

Crimes against women

277. SHRI B. K. HARIPRASAD: Will the PRIME MINISTER be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government's attention has been drawn to a news-item published in Deccan Herald dated 29th January, 1991 where in it has been stated that the crimes against women are on the rise;

(b) whether Government have done any studies on these crimes and if so, what are the figures for the past three years, crime-wise and State-wise;

(c) whether Government are contemplating any change in the existing laws to plug the loopholes and protect the interests of these vulnerable sections of the society; and

(d) whether Government propose to involve voluntary and women's organisations in formulating these laws for wider acceptability and efficacy?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF LABOUR AND THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF WELFARE (SHRI RAMJI LAL SUMAN): (a) Yes, Sir.

(b) The Bureau of Police Research Development have made two studies viz (1) Crime Against Women (1982) and (2) Unnatural Deaths of married women with a special reference year to dowry deaths (1986). Figures for the last three years i.e. 1988, 1989 and 1990 Crime-wise and State-wise are given in the enclosed Annexure. [See Appendix CLVII, Annexure No. 9]

(c) and (d): The Department of Women and Child Development organised a workshop on 'Women and Law' on 12-13 January, 1991 in collaboration with Indian Law Institute to review and amend the four Acts concerning women viz. (i) The Immoral Traffic (Prevention) Act, 1956, (ii) The Dowry Prohibition Act, 1961, (iii) Indecent Representation of Women (Prohibition) Act, 1986 and (iv) The Commission of Sati (Prevention) Act, 1987 to make their provisions more effective and stringent. Voluntary & Women's Organisations were also invited in this workshop to make their suggestions.

Job evaluation of doordarshan employees by National Productivity Council

278. SHRI AJIT P. K. JOGI: Will the PRIME MINISTER be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that the National Productivity Council has been assigned with job evaluation and survey regarding Senior Engineering Assistants, Engineering Assistants, Technicians vis-a-vis Cameramen and Lighting Assistants of Doordarshan for the purpose of enhancement of their pay scales of doordarshan;

(b) if so, the reason for a comparative study or job evaluation between the employees of two altogether separate cadre| wings of Doordarshan having no similarity|comparison or parallel between them in any respect; and

(c) whether Government propose to continue to persue the job evaluation through National Productivity Council?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS AND THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF INFORMATION AND BROADCASTING (SHRI SUBODH KANT SAHAY): (a) to (c) The Engineering and Technical Staff Association of AIR & Doordarshan have pointed out that there is a disparity in the pay scales of certain categories of comparable posts in AIR and Doordarshan and demanded higher pay scales to the technical|engineering staff. In the context of discussions with the representatives of the employees it was decided that a professional body like the National Productivity Council should undertake a study on this and other related issues. The job evaluation would be continued either through the National Productivity Council or through a government agency.

Telecast and broadcast of Richas in the morning transmissions over AIR & TV

279. SHRI AJIT P. K. JOGI: Will the PRIME MINISTER be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government propose to telecast and broadcast Richas (Mantras) from Vedas in devotional music programmes in the morning transmission; and

(b) if the reply to part (a) above be in the negative the reasons therefor?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS AND THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF INFORMATION AND BROADCASTING (SHRI SUBODH KANT SAHAY): (a) and (b) At present, there is no such proposal. However, some of the All India Radio Stations include Vedic recitation in their programmes of devotional music. Songs of devotional nature in Semi-classical or classical style are also telecast in the morning transmission of Doordarshan.
